Nahum, Habakkuk, and Zephaniah

It's time to "fuel up." Use your Bible to answer these questions about the books of Nahum, Habakkuk, and Zephaniah—stops 34, 35, and 36 on our Route 66 road trip!

1. How many chapters are in the book of Nahum? _____ Habakkuk? _____ Zephaniah? _____
2. How does Nahum describe God to the wicked people of Nineveh? (Nahum 1:2–6)

3. How does Nahum describe God to His own people—the people of Judah? (Nahum 1:7)

4. What was Habakkuk's complaint against God? (Habakkuk 1:1–3)

5. How did God answer Habakkuk? (Habakkuk 1:5)

6. Copy the beginning of Habakkuk's prayer here. (Habakkuk 3:2)

7. Even when Habakkuk finds it hard to trust God—when it seems like God is not paying attention or doesn't care —what does Habakkuk decide to do? (Habakkuk 3:16–18)

8. What does Zephaniah say is coming quickly? (Zephaniah 1:14)

9. While God punishes the wicked, what should God's people seek? (Zephaniah 2:3)

10. Why does Zephaniah tell the people of Israel to rejoice? (Zephaniah 3:14–18)

Mile Marker: Read Nahum 1:7. A refuge is a place safe from danger. It could be a great fortress, a secret cave, or some other hiding place. The Bible says that God Himself is our refuge, our hiding place. (See also Psalm 32:7 and Psalm 91.) He will take care of us. Use your imagination to draw a picture of whatever comes to mind when you think of the words refuge, fortress, or hiding place. Keep it in your Souvenir Scrapbook.
